2010 Fifa World Cup updates from South Africa's online gateway

2010 boost for SA's Olympic hopes

Rio de Janeiro's winning the right to host the 31st Olympiad has boosted South Africa's Olympic ambitions. A successful 2010 Fifa World Cup would enable the country to stake a serious claim to host the event in 2020.

Eight more countries qualify for 2010

The United States, Cote d'Ivoire, Germany, Denmark, Serbia, Mexico, Italy and Chile all won their qualifying matches at the weekend, successfully securing their places at the 2010 Fifa World Cup South Africa.

1 Goal: education for all

South African President Jacob Zuma joined Fifa president Sepp Blatter and world leaders and star footballers from a number other countries to champion the cause of education for all at the global launch of the 1 Goal campaign on Tuesday.

Football Friday at SchoolNet SA

"At first just two of us had football shirts this morning, then two other teammates went out and bought shirts, and another teammate is out buying a shirt as we speak," The staff at SchoolNet SA celebrate Football Friday.

SA's 2010 stadiums near completion

South Africa's four new built-from-scratch 2010 Fifa World Cup stadiums, as well as the flagship upgraded Soccer City stadium, are on track for completion by the end of the year, Fifa's experts reported after a six-day, six-city inspection tour.

'Soccer and safaris' for 2010

With excitement starting to build up ahead of the 2010 Fifa World Cup, and thousands of North American soccer fans getting serious about their travel plans, US-based Africa Adventure Consultants have announced two new World Cup travel packages to South Africa.
